

Fred Banks Fund Reaches $1,025

Drive for Ardmore Man Hits Stride as Letters Pour In Contributions for the Fred Banks Fund have been pouring in during the past few weeks, and so far have reached a total of $1,025.

The fund, being raised to aid Fred Banks, Negro driver for the Dunne Fuel and Coal Co., who was stricken with infantile paralysis about a month ago, is being handled by a committee of Narberth business men. The executive committee is composed of John J. Jeffries, Jr., former president of the Lower Merion Board of Commissioners; William S. Howard, Richard L. Miller, Narberth; Burkess E. Lee, Goldsborough; William H. Durbin, and Dr. Arthur J. Denman, medical advisor.

Plans to send Banks to an infirmary for treatment, and to meet the payments on the mortgage of the Banks home are being completed by the committee.

Banks, who was stricken in both legs, had been serving coal to Main Line homes for over 23 years before his illness. The Narberth business men started the campaign with letters sent to the regular customers of the coal company, and by now, letters from all parts of the country are coming in with contributions.

HERE AND THERE

by BETSY-ANN

Sunday night on the "We the People" program, an American woman, a messenger, came to the neighborhood in the morning to help the Hollanders. She spoke of their lack of tools. In one village they had one saw and two neighboring villages came there to borrow the saw to build a chair or a table. They haven't any nails or other tools to work with. You can help these people by contributing to the United War Chest. They in turn will help these people gather up the pieces and start over again.

Monday night is "Mischief Night," so remember to bring in the porch furniture or anything else that might be damaged. You may have to scour the neighborhood the next morning to find it. You know the children make the most of Halloween, celebrating three nights. Beginning with the first night, then "The Trick Night," soaping window panes and cars. Be sure to put your car away, and finally "Halloween" proper. Then they will visit you as ghosts, farmers, soldiers, and so on. You may have old ladies or lads and lasses of many nations. That night they carry shopping bags—be sure you have some apples, candy or cookies for them when they visit you. This is a big moment in little lives.

Met Mrs. M. C. Peterson in the Village last week. As Sue Reids, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reids, she lived on Dudley Ave. 25 years ago, later moved to Windsor Ave. Mrs. Peterson graduated from Lower Merion and Penn State and is living with her husband and two sons, aged 10 and four, at Marlborough. She is now 72, her first return to her home town in 10 years. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dilworth of Merion Park. Mr. and Mrs. Reids are also living at Marlborough.

"Some New Books for October"—"A Lady Like the Moon"—Benevise Wimsatt. A story of love and intrigue in Old China. It's the story of Round Moon, a beautiful singing girl who destiny was intertwined with the struggle of a valiant people to throw off the yoke of seventeenth century despotism. Married to an emperor, she loved him, but when the Emperor died, she found her love in the gallant and ambitious General Wu.

"Silver Struck"—Hamilton Cochran. Author of "Windward Passage" and "Captain Ebony." For his third exciting novel, Hamilton Cochran has dramatized one of the most significant and romantic periods of history on both sides of the Atlantic—the latter part of the seventeenth century.

"The Small General"—Robert Standish. Author of "Bonin" and "The Three Bamboos." The story of a business scandal, of love and conflict and patriotism told in a highly entertaining way, and laid in contemporary China.

"Any Number Can Play"—Edward Harris Reth. "Any Number Can Play" is the story of a September night at Charlie's house—of the ornate front room where the rich played roulette, gambling without passion and the small back rooms, smelling of smoke, where the real gamblers whispered to their dice and chips.

WAR CHEST LEADERS

Mrs. Ralph Earle Haverford, vice-chairman of the United War Chest, discussed Main Line campaign plans with Benjamin Ludlow (left), Bryn Mawr; chairman Zone "A" which includes Main Line and Delaware County, and Thomas Hart, Wynnewood, associate general chairman, at a recent report luncheon.

Autocar Co. Labor, Management Work Together For War Chest

The 1945-46 campaign for the United War Chest of the Autocar Company got under way on Monday following a meeting of representatives of all classes of workers from the company.

B. J. Hargaden, president of the Local 131, UAW-CIO, and Robert Fellows Wood, advertising manager of the company, presided at the meeting.

Workers present included not only members of the Local 131 represented by officers, committeemen and stewards of the union, but also representatives of the salaried workers and management.

Edward Cave, an employee of the Philadelphia Electric Company's Ardmore office and a member of the speaker's staff for the War Chest Drive, told of the work being done by the War Chest and how important it was to reach the War Chest goal.

Moving pictures were shown depicting the work of the War Chest for servicemen in this country and overseas.

Envelopes containing pledge forms were issued to the employees who will solicit their fellow workers for contributions.

"We did not accept any definite quota this year," said Wood, "but the contribution of the Autocar employees will be as high as each individual deems he is able to give."

Last year Autocar employees contributed $10,000 and the year before they gave $18,000.

According to Wood a definite quota was not accepted because the work week of the employees has dropped to 40 hours and the take-home pay is not as great now as it was during the war period.

"This meeting was one which involved all Autocar employees who are anxious to do their share for a worthy cause," said Wood.

Boro Board Denies Building Petition

Former Ruling of Inspector Upheld; List Zone as Reason

The Narberth Zoning Board has handed down a decision to uphold George B. Supple, Borough building inspector, who denied a building permit to John Paolini, who wished to build a one-story addition to the present structure on the property located at 246 Woodbine Ave.

The board allowed Paolini to construct the addition to the present building provided he allow the 15 foot rear yard setback. In leaving this much space as required in the zoning code, the size of the addition would be cut from 26 to 11 feet.

In giving this decision Paolini has given up his idea of constructing the addition, saying that the smaller building would not be practical.

The proposed addition would have been constructed in such a manner that the completed building would extend the length of the entire lot to the alley running along the rear of the store. It would have been one story high with a ceiling height of 10 feet and would have been used for additional storage and refrigeration.

Borough Solicitor Henry A. Frye stated when the building permit was refused that the only reason for the refusal was the fact that zoning laws require a certain amount of air space surrounding living quarters. Paolini rents an apartment in the front of the second story of the building.

The 19 voting districts in Lower Merion Township report a registration of 24,079 and the three future districts report a total of 443, for the forthcoming general elections on November 6.

In Narberth the breakdown showed 369 registered Republicans; 369 Democrats; 93 Non-partisan and one Socialist.

The Montgomery County Registration Commission composed of County Commissioners Foster C. Leggett, Fred C. Peters and Raymond K. Mensch reported that a tabulation which they had prepared showed a total of 138,942 persons have registered and are eligible to vote in the municipal election.

The final count of registered voters as of September 15 which was the last day to register prior to the election, showed an increase of 1,411 over the total last May 21 before the Primary Election.

Current registration figures for the county by parties shows: Republican, 108,936; Democrat, 27,274; Non-partisan, 2,629; Socialist, 69; Prohibitionist, 14; Progressive, 2.

Penny Moriarty's Pet Lost, Strayed, Stolen

Penny Comly Moriarty, although she is only four months old, is puzzled because her cocker spaniel is not at home to watch her. The female, which is white and brown, is about a year and four months old, strayed from her home at 17 Bryn Mawr Ave. Bala, a few days ago, and has not returned. It wore a choker chain around its neck, and the collar had a small tag of Penny's pet, will they please notify her mother, Mrs. Charles A. Moriarty at Cynwyd 0805-W.

William Harris has painted an oak tree on which the children of the Narberth school will affix oak leaves in different colors, representing their respective classes, according to the number of parents who join the association. At the close of the drive on November 2, the class having the greatest number of parents in the association will have a prize in the form of a party. The class with the most fathers joining will receive a book.

Organize Groups, Rotary Is Advised

Juvenile Delinquency Problem of Whole Community, He Says

A. O. Becker, executive secretary of the Main Line YMCA, told members of the Bala-Cynwyd Narberth Rotary Club on Tuesday that talk about juvenile delinquency was a mistake that it should be community delinquency.

He said that each community should organize group activities for boys and girls of the neighborhood. He said he would like to see each community organize a council, sort of a big brother organization composed of business men who would sponsor and advise the youth of the community.

He pointed out that the youth of today will become the leaders of the future and it was up to the community to see that the children had sponsored health, educational and sports programs.

If the adults of the community would back up the youth, they would be more willing to cooperate knowing they had the adults' support," he said.

Becker said he would like to see each service club have a community service committee and become more active in helping the youth of the community.

Democrat, Republican, Non-Partisan Women Stage Three Lower Merion Pre-election Rallies

250 Attend League of Women Voters Meeting at High School

More than 250 citizens heard the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women brought out only a light attendance at a rally Wednesday night at the Ashbridge House, Montgomery Ave., and Aldridge Rd., Rosemont.

Although advertised as the only township-wide rally of the campaign, there were only 60 present, and before the meeting ended, about 10 of these left.

Rain kept a good many away, officers of the Council said.

Of the 11 Republican candidates listed for the campaigning, six were present. The reason for this might have been the fact that they were attending the Lower Merion Township League of Women Voters meeting held the same night at the Senior High School. In fact, one of the candidates stated that he was sorry to leave, but he was going to attend a meeting where "there was word to say."

Republican candidates for Township Commissioner who spoke at the meeting were: Charles R. Kimbell, Rosemont; William F. Whelan, West Ardmore; Edwin A. Steubner, Gladwynne; and Herbert J. Painter, South Ardmore.

The candidates for the school board, Raymond P. Scott, Mrs. Jeanette W. Sloum, and Joseph B. Parks were represented by Ed.

Stress Minority Party Issue at Democrats Tea to Miss Ely

Minority party representation on the Lower Merion and Narberth government bodies was urged by democratic candidates at a tea given in honor of Miss Gertrude Ely by Miss Mary Gibson at her home in Wynnewood Tuesday afternoon. About 200 persons attended the tea.

Speakers at the tea were Miss Ely, Bryn Mawr, and James Gilmore, Wynnewood, candidates for the Lower Merion School Board; Dr. Russell F. Minton, West Ardmore, candidate for Lower Merion Board of Commissioners; and Kenneth L. M. Pray, Narberth, candidate for the Narberth Borough Council.

Although she attended a private school herself, Miss Ely believes that public schools are the schools to which children should go.

Miss Ely came out for a better health program. She said she was appalled at how few health examinations are given in the schools. She also feels that something should be done about the cases where the parents can not afford to follow through on the medical advice given them by the schools.

Gilmore favored a better guidance program in the schools and an enlarged and improved adult program. He also feels that there

Trailer Case Goes To Superior Court

Seeks Reversal of Building Code Violation Charge

The case of Lower Merion Township vs. N. D. Gallup, operator of a trailer camp on Lancaster Pike will be argued before the Pennsylvania Superior Court on December 12.

The township contends that Gallup is in violation of a township ordinance which states that when a trailer camp stays over 30 days it must comply with the township building code. In 1939 this ordinance was added to the building code and in 1941 when the code was revised, it was included in it.

The trailer camp was started in 1937 and after the ordinance was passed the owner contended that he was housing war workers and based his argument on this point.

The case was taken to the Court of Common Pleas in Norristown which held in favor of the township. An agreement for exception was taken before three judges in Norristown and they, too, held in favor of the township.

Gallup then appealed the case to the Superior Court over a year ago and the case has been pending since that time.

Election Would Be Credit to County, Declares Speaker

Lieutenant Governor Raps New Deal; Lauds Fred Peters

Montgomery County Republican Chairman Lloyd H. Wood expressed the hope at a meeting of the Whitemarsh Republican Club Tuesday night that Lt. Gov. John C. Bell, Jr., Hathaway and Mansion Lanes, Wynnewood, would be the next governor of Pennsylvania.

The statement came as the high note of the 1945 campaign which to date has been listless because of the lack of any stirring county or state contests. It was more significant coming from the county chairman and directed at a prominent Main Lineer who only missed the gubernatorial nomination by a hair four years ago.

Lt. Gov. Bell did not pick up the political mantle except to say: "Thank you Lloyd and all of you for your kind wishes."

The meeting attended by 150 in the Flourtown Fire House was one of a series of Republican rallies being held throughout Montgomery County.

In introducing Lt. Gov. Bell as the speaker Wood said:

"He possesses the character and ability to be governor of the Commonwealth and if he becomes governor his administration will be a boost to Montgomery for all time to come. I hope he is the next governor of the Commonwealth."

Others speakers were Montgomery County Republican leader and county commissioner, Fred C. Peters, Ardmore; Earl B. Bechtel, Pottstown, candidate for prothonotary; Davis Kirk, Lansdale, candidate for jury commissioner; Sheriff Samuel M. Glass, White Marsh, president. None of the other speakers referred to the governor remark of Chairman Wood.

Lt. Gov. Bell in his talk spoke of the "matchless government of Montgomery County which is the envy of the State." He lauded the work of County Leader Peters in running Montgomery its good government. He referred to County Chairman Wood, who is a State

Rod-Gun Club To Hold Holiday Shoot

Appoint Committee to Attend Meeting on Narberth Memorial

At the regular meeting of the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club held last Wednesday evening in Narberth, George Floyd, Earl Moore and Field Captain Ernest Winking, all of Narberth, reported that the club's trap committee will hold a Thanksgiving shoot, with capons as prizes, the Sunday before Thanksgiving at the Nesh Farm on Sprague Road in Narberth.

Following unanimous resolution, C. H. A. Chain, of Narberth, acting chairman in the absence of the club's president, Lloyd D. Bois of Bala-Cynwyd, appointed C. G. Gyswold and John A. Miller, of Narberth, and Henry A. Drumm, of Upper Darby as a three-man committee to sit in on a commemorative meeting of Narberth organizations and the Planning Commission, to consider the possibility of erecting a community memorial auditorium in Narberth.

A rifle practice is held each Monday evening, said Chairman Henry Hopkins, in the Lower Merion High School Rifle Range, where improvements now being made will make it possible for eight to shoot at the same time, instead of four, as in the past.

Mrs. Ellen A. Dietrich of Upper Darby, recently appointed chairman of the Southerly Division of the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs Committee on Perkiomen Dams, reported that Secretary James A. Keil of the State Department of Forests and Waters was awaiting word from Attorney General James H. Duff as to whether some of the funds appropriated by the Pennsylvania Legislature last Spring for dam building would be used to repair broken up dams along the Perkiomen. A number of these dams, Mrs. Dietrich explained, were built several years ago by WPA labor and if they are not repaired they will be beyond repair. During the past two summers, she added, many residents of the Perkiomen Valley were fearful of their diminishing water supply for agriculture and other purposes.

do their thinking and voting for them," she said.

All of the Democratic candidates who spoke made a plea for minority party representation on both the Lower Merion Township Board of Commissioners and the Lower Merion School Board. Republican candidates asked their election to continue the good government that Lower Merion now enjoys.

Highlight statements of the meeting were:

Charles R. Kimbell, former chairman of the Lower Merion Republican Committee and now a candidate for township commissioner from Rosemont, said that he did not favor making Lower Merion a boom town.

"It is a delightful place in which to live but I do not think it should be over promoted," he said. "We should keep its present charm and delightful suburban atmosphere."

Use of either the 69th Street office or the Norristown office by veterans will have no geographical limitations but will be a matter of preference and accessibility as far as veterans are concerned.

In a letter to Congressman McConnell, the Veterans' Administration director of Contact Service, N. D. Hathaway, said:

"In the further expansion of the Contact Service and for your information and records the manager Veterans Administration, Philadelphia, Pa., is this date being advised that authority has been granted to establish a Contact Unit at Norristown to consist of a contact representative and a clerk-stenographer."

"Presently, Veterans are provided forms and are given assistance in filling them out by various Montgomery County agencies, but finally they must go to Philadelphia up to this time has been the 'clearing house' for all such work."

In many instances this proved of great inconvenience and the Veterans' Advisory Committee of Norristown and vicinity, realizing this, sought the corrective measure in which they have been successful.

Plans for the new 69th St. Veterans' branch were announced last Wednesday by Harry Crosson, Regional Manager of the Veterans' Administration, who said the office will offer veterans in this area all the facilities now available in Philadelphia.

The office, Crosson said, will be located in the Terminal Motors Building, approximately one block from the 69th Street Terminal.

Although no opening date has been set, Crosson said VA officials hope to have the office in operation by January 1. He said plans for alterations are now underway in the Federal Building Agency, which leased the building for the Veterans' Administration. The alterations will require about 45 days before the building will be ready for occupancy.

What do I think of the servant situation?

Why, I haven't any servants! I do all my own housework.

Not quite all, Mrs. Smith. You have some household appliances, haven't you?

Of course, but—

OF COURSE—that's the answer, Mrs. Smith. You do have a servant, but you take that servant for granted. You've got a combination laundry, cook, cleaning woman, lamp-lighter, seamstress and entertainer—one who doesn't mind a few odd jobs like heating the bath water, guarding your food, fanning your fevered brow—

Oh, you mean ELECTRICITY—

Yes, Mrs. Smith, electricity—the universal servant who works 24 hours a day at low pre-war wages—and never asks for time off. Why, Mrs. Smith, your "servant situation" here in America is better than anywhere else in the world.

P. T. A. Group Making Second Attempt to Organize Boy Scouts

A second attempt to organize Narberth boys into Cub Scout packs is under way, sponsored by the Narberth School Parent-Teachers Association.

At a recent meeting, R. L. Lehman, president of the Parent-Teacher Group, announced that a recent survey of Narberth boys disclosed that out of 70 boys questioned 47 of them, who were the qualifying age, were interested in becoming Scouts. The survey was conducted by the Main Line District of Boy Scouts.

A good Cub pack contains 28 to 32 boys who are divided into smaller groups, or dens, Lehman stated.

A committee of the Association is being appointed to organize meetings of parents and representatives of the Boy Scouts.

Dr. Minton spoke for minority representation, a housing program and the economic well being of everyone.

The Narberth candidate, Kenneth Pray, feels that through his interest, study of the government, he has something to contribute to the Narberth Council. He said that there were a number of things in Narberth that should be fixed up. The Haverford Ave. sewer system should be remedied, he said. The traffic congestion on Narberth Ave. at the Pennsylvania Railroad crossing is dangerous and something should be done about it.

Walter J. Hammonds, Republican candidate for township treasurer, reiterated his primary campaign pledge that he believed the fee-office of township treasurer should be a fixed salary office.

His Democratic opponent, Frank A. Keegan, said he expected a wonderful outcome because every time there was an election he found himself running for something.

Erwin A. Steubner, Republican candidate for commissioner from East Bryn Mawr, said that his father, staunch Republican, would never have attended a meeting like this because he never expected to meet anyone except Republicans in heaven.

William F. Whalen, Republican candidate for commissioner in West Ardmore, said that his father had been a commissioner and had died in office.

"I hope to follow in his footsteps," he said.

William Costello, Jr., Democratic candidate for commissioner in South Ardmore, spoke in favor of planning and added:

"I am the father of eight children. Although not a candidate F. A. Dubois, Lower Merion superintendent of schools, was asked from the floor:

"Do you favor the Springfield plan?"

"I don't know," said Dubois. "what is it?"

The young lady went on to explain it was a plan to break down racial and social discrimination in the schools."

450 Attend Reception At Merion Tribute House After Event

At the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, Saturday, October 20, at 8.30, the marriage of Miss Mary Mason Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Young, of Grove Place, Narberth, and Lieutenant Campbell Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Miller, of Germantown, was solemnized by candlelight against a background of crotchet ferns and white Fall flowers. Canon E. C. Earp officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with full skirt, tight bodice of lace, with sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her full length veil, caught by a coronet of orange blossoms, covered her train. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and bouvardia.

Miss Barbara J. Young, maid of honor for her sister, wore a gown of citron colored silk jersey, fashioned with full skirt, tight bodice, sweetheart neckline, and three quarter sleeves. She wore a Juliet cap of matching tulle and carried a bouquet of larkspur and tiny yellow chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Joan Deal of Cynwyd, Miss Christine Baird Sweeney of Margate, N. J., Miss Anne Marie Stewart of Chestnut Hill, Miss Jeanne Arbogast and Miss Jeanette Cory of Wynnewood, and Mrs. H. Scott Young of Penn Valley, wore gowns of the same color and fashioned on the same lines as the maid of honor, with matching Juliet caps of tulle and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Young, mother of the bride, chose a gown of misty green, with fuchsia feather hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

Mrs. Miller, mother of the bridegroom, wore a beaded gown of grey-blue crepe, with matching hat and accessories, and a corsage of orchids.

Mr. George L. Miller was best man for his son, and the ushers were Lt. John Toll Young, and A. S. Henry Steward Young, brothers of the bride; Captain George L. Miller, Jr., brother of the bridegroom; Lt. Robert Keeler of Massachusetts; Lt. E. Smedley Ward of Philadelphia; Lt. John Heppie of Bala-Cynwyd; Captain George Feidler of West Virginia, and Sgt. Henry B. Stewart of Chestnut Hill.

Four hundred and fifty relatives and friends attended the reception at the Merion Tribute House, which followed the ceremony. After a honeymoon at Sea Island, Georgia, Lieutenant and Mrs. Miller will reside in Germantown.

representative, as the "ablest man in the House."

Attacks Deal
The theme of Mr. Bell's talk was a vitriolic attack on "New Deal bungling," much similar to previous talks he has made in Montgomery County during the last several years.

The prime reason why all Republicans should take an interest in the Nov. 6 election, Bell said, is the bungling that has marked the New Deal administration in Washington.

He questioned ability of the New Deal to find jobs for all who need them now or in the future, when, during the depression, its expenditure of $60 billion was unable to solve unemployment.

"It is only solution then was more and more spending and regimentation," said Bell.

"No government," Bell continued, "can provide 50 million jobs unless we want to go Socialistic or Communist. The only way 50 million persons can get jobs is by private enterprise and agriculture and the only party to provide them through that means is the Republican Party."

He also hit hard on the question of Bureaucracy charging that presently there are three and one-half million bureaucrats on the Federal payroll. It is so rampant, said Bell, that Democratic Senator Byrd recently reported "there are one million unnecessary and useless bureaucrats on the Federal payroll."

The Lieutenant Governor also hit at the public debt "which is three times more than Roosevelt ever had" and dwelt on the threat of inflation.

TO NARBERTH VOTERS:

DO YOU BELIEVE THAT

- (1) Local government should be the football of partisan politics?
- (2) Good citizens, capable of serving Narberth well, should be excluded from local public office because they do not wear one certain party label or belong to one political faction?
- (3) One-party monopoly of local government, for ten years on end, is necessary, desirable or fair?

IF NOT, AS A CANDIDATE FOR BOROUGH COUNCIL I
SOLICIT YOUR VOTE ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6

I am a registered Democrat. Until we can change the law to permit election of local officials on a non-partisan ballot, I have to run for office on the Democratic ticket. A cross after my name only, among candidates for Council, will be a vote for non-partisan local government.

ONE DEMOCRAT IN BOROUGH COUNCIL WILL NOT DESTROY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, BUT IT WILL RESTORE REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT

I have served in both State and local government; have observed government at close range as reporter and legislative correspondent; have studied and taught public administration for years; have lived and paid taxes in Narberth for more than twenty years.

Will You Write or Phone Me If You Will Help?
Thank You!

Lower Merion's Ragged Play Causes Concern On Eve of Upper Darby Game

Powell Scores All Three Touchdowns As Maroon Comes From Behind to Defeat Ridley Township, 19-12

By BOB JOHNSTON

Still dissatisfied with Lower Merion's performance despite last week's 19-12 triumph over Ridley Township, Coach Dick Mattis yesterday indicated the imminence of a shakeup for Saturday afternoon's Suburban Big Six game at Upper Darby.

"We played poorly despite the victory," said Mattis. "I guess the kids suffered the inevitable let-down, but I'm not at all satisfied with the way they've been going. I may be forced to juggle the lineup at Upper Darby to try to snap them out of it."

Upper Darby's Royals will be meeting Lower Merion for the fifth time since Mattis became L. M. coach. Upper Darby won in 1941 by 7-6, but its over Merion (17-1) triumphed by 19-13 the following season. Lower Merion again emerged victorious in 1943, 25-6, but last year the Royals registered a 6-2 triumph.

Upper Darby definitely will be no pushover for the Bulldogs and they can ill afford to suffer any letdown Saturday. For the Royals, always at their best against Lower Merion, hope to gain some solace for a mediocre season. A victory over Lower Merion would go far toward that end.

Upper Darby defeated Episcopal Academy in its opener, tied Radnor and lost to Chester, 12-0. The Royals bowled over Lansdowne, but bowed to Abington by a two-touchdown margin in their last start Saturday.

Lower Merion will be in fine physical condition for the game, with the possible exception of Johnny Kane, left end, who sustained an arm injury against Ridley Township.

Randy Dick Powell scored all three Lower Merion touchdowns as Ridley tumbled and his last two were sorely needed. When Powell plunged over for his second six-pointer, it erased a 12-7 lead taken by Ridley in the third period.

Powell snatched Parry Scott's 25-yard pass for the first-period touchdown. He plunged over from the two for a third-period score which gave the Matismen the lead for keeps, after Jim Fleck had recovered a Ridley fumble on the enemy 10. In the fourth period, Powell scampered 65 yards with Battino's kick, going over behind beautiful blocking.

While you can't improve on Nature it does require some assistance from man in order to take advantage of its bounties.

Nature provides a supply of water in lakes, rivers and springs. By a continuous cycle water is drawn up out of the ocean . . . carried in clouds over the land . . . sprinkled over the earth in the form of rain and finally runs in rivers back into the ocean again.

After years of untiring effort, man has taken advantage of this never ending cycle and has taken this water, stored it, purified it and brought it to your home for your vital uses and convenience.

Springfield water comes from the best and purest sources because it is closest to Nature.
